Patrick Knowles

Patrick Knowles has honed his skills and talents in the marine and aircraft industries for the past 25 years. Located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Patrick Knowles Design employs a full staff, which allows his company to cover every nook and cranny of the design business, from design assistants to Cadd operations to business management; the firm is poised to undertake virtually any project. Born in the Bahamas, he later emigrated to the U.S. to complete his education. Patrick and his wife of 20 years, Sheila Knowles, enjoy being part of the yachting community.

M/Y CHAIRMAN - DINING SALON

"A swank New York apartment," is what the owners of this sophisticated vessel envisioned for the decor of their yacht. The design elements that made this possible include a variety of material such as sapele mahogany, white thasos granite, coffee overheads and a stark white décor package, heavily accented with sterling and crystal.
